

JOHN AND COURTNEY MCKEE—HEADFRAME SPIRITS

The entire team at Headframe Spirits has a passion for Montana and their hometown, Butte, but John and Courtney McKee take that pride to a whole new level. When the owners of the newest distillery in Butte look around the historic town, they know there are thousands of stories just waiting to be told. In the past year they have filmed a movie that celebrates Butte's history of innovation, put Montana-made products in distilleries across the country, planned for an expansion that will make Montana a leader in the distilled spirits market, and launched a campaign reinvigorating the pioneering spirit that made Butte the richest hill on earth.

More than that though, they see a future in Butte as a destination, a leader in culture, history, and innovation that has been a looking for a chance to shine again. Engaging their audiences across film, music, video, social media, and a cocktail glass (or two!), this husband and wife team overcomes every obstacle with true Montana spirit.
